AAA/QQ OR BETTER BEATEN BY BIGGER HAND QUALIFIES BAD BEAT RULES AND MORE DETAILS ON BACK PAGE.

To win the Bad Beat Jackpot, a player must lose a hand with a hand rank of Four-of-a-kind, Fives or better, where: The other player will have a hand to beat that four-of-a-kind.

- At least 5 players are dealt into the hand and remain seated at the table until the Jackpot is triggered.
- The hand goes to a showdown.
- Both the winning and losing hand use both of their hole-cards to make their five-card hand.
- The tournament will contribute 5% of total monies for that evenings event, and contributes towards the jackpot pool.
- The best hand for both the winner and the loser must include their two hole cards.
- In the case of Four of a Kind, the hole cards must be a pocket pair.
- In case of Full House beaten AAA/KK must have pocket aces, in order to qualify.
- The jackpot contribution must be collected in order for the hand to qualify for a Bad Beat Jackpot.
- The two highest hands will be considered for the jackpot if there are two or more hands that qualify for the jackpot, with the highest hand being the winning hand (the winner) and the second highest hand winning the jackpot (the loser of the hand).
- In the event there are two claims on the jackpot, from different tables, at approximately the same time; the hand that finishes first will be awarded the jackpot. The end timestamp of the hand will decide which hand finished first. The jackpot will then be re-seeded and that jackpot awarded to the second table.
- *Revealing cards to any other player or any discussion of the hands in play will disqualify the hand from any Jackpot payments. ****

The jackpot amounts increase progressively on a weekly basis: also qualifying hands will decrease on a monthly basis. At least 5 players are dealt into the hand and remain seated at the table until the Jackpot is triggered.

Jackpot prizes are shared between all players who were dealt into the hand, with the majority being awarded to the player with the qualifying losing hand. 70% of the jackpot amount is awarded in prizes, with 20% retained to seed the next jackpot, and 10% retained as an administration fee
